

Lisa
ROYCE

BUSINESS MANAGER

True to her Libra nature, Lisa is borderline obsessed with equality and order. She is an i-dotter, t-crosser & has a penchant for puns. Her friends affectionately refer to her as the Grammar Police, as she is known to give out citations.

Figuring out what it takes to get the impossible done is one of her greatest strengths. She can anticipate pitfalls from miles away and find ways to maneuver around them.

Lisa is highly adaptable and ready for just about any surprise that awaits her. Her degree in advertising and over a decade in ad agencies has given her the tools to understand people & their complex needs.

Although she thrives in her day-to-day duties that keep everything humming along, she enjoys the odd ball project. Her most interesting challenge was writing scripts for life-sized talking animals at a national restaurant chain.

Lisa joined forces with Suzann in 2012 & together, they are a dynamic duo. She is the yin to her yang, cracking the whip, filling the gaps and keeping the wheels on the bus.
